CLAIM FOR LOST / DAMAGED / ERROR TICKETS RETAIL AND ONCOURSE – QLD, SA, NT & TAS

CLAIMS INFORMATION

If you wish to make a claim to Tabcorp for a lost/damaged/stolen ticket or in relation to an error relating to a ticket you must ensure you have read these instructions and completed all items on the checklist below – this will avoid delays in processing your claim.

Introduction:

Tabcorp offers customers the opportunity to lodge a claim. This includes:

- Claiming an incorrect bet has been placed.
- Claims relating to lost/stolen tickets.
- Claiming that a bet did not get placed due to alleged negligence by Tabcorp or its officers/employees/agents.
- Claiming that a bet did not get placed due to alleged misinformation by Tabcorp.
- Error claims when a ticket does not scan.

Strict rules govern the way such Claims are to be lodged and investigated, determined and if successful, paid out. These rules (referred to below) have been implemented to protect Customers and Tabcorp; they ensure Claims are dealt with fairly and quickly. You can access the Betting Rules at tab.com.au.

Applicable Rules:

- Queensland Wagering Rule.
- South Australian Betting Operations Rules and On-Course. Betting Operations Rules.
- Northern Territory Totalisator Licensing and Regulation (Wagering) Rules.
- UBET TAS Pty Ltd Tasmanian Betting Rules.

NOTE FOR RECEIVING TAB OPERATOR: Please be aware that incorrectly resulted tickets may be paid out in-venue. TAB Operators can contact the Service Support Centre to have eligible tickets resulted. This is specific to tickets where the market/selection has been resulted incorrectly and the customer may be entitled to the dividend.

Claim Rules:

- Customers have 14 calendar days from the date of the race or event on which the bet was placed in which to lodge a Claim.
- A $5.50 (GST incl.) non-refundable processing fee must be paid before any investigation into the Claim will commence.
- A Signed and Witnessed Statutory Declaration MUST accompany each Claim. Claims will not be processed until the Stat Dec is received.
- Tabcorp has the right to request as much information as required to facilitate the investigation of the Claim. Failure to supply sufficient and correct information may lead to delays and/or Claim being declined.
- Tabcorp offers a "Blocking" service if the Claim meets certain criteria. "Blocked" tickets cannot be collected by other Customers. Refer to Operator for details.
- Tabcorp will send acknowledgement of the receipt of Claim within 21 days and you will be notified as to the result of the Claim by mail.
- If all Claim documentation is correct Tabcorp will process the Claim as quickly as possible.
- Under the rules, only one appeal (per Claim) is allowed. Appeals are treated as a separate Claim and will incur the $5.50 non-refundable fee.
- To ensure fairness a Claims Officer other than the original Investigating Officer or the subordinate must investigate appeals.
- Tabcorp's decision will be final.

CLAIMS CHECKLIST

You must ensure that you:

☐ Check that the Ticket you are Claiming is a Winner

Results can be obtained from the Operator, Customer Information Terminal, TAB Internet site www.tab.com.au or Customer Service 13 18 02.

☐ Read the Claim Information opposite

Any items that you do not understand can be explained by the Operator or by Customer Service 13 18 02.

☐ Pay the processing fee

IMPORTANT NOTICES

Customer Due Diligence Collection Notice

This privacy collection notice from Tabcorp Holdings Limited (ABN 66 063 780 709) and its subsidiaries (we, us, our) outlines why we collect your personal information, what we collect, how we collect it and who we share it with, in relation to your TAB account(s), including for the purposes of customer due diligence.

The separate Identity Verification Collection Notice below applies in respect of our collection of your information for identity verification via a service that matches your identity document details to the record held by the document issuer or official record holder.

Why we need to collect your information: We collect your personal information to enable use of your TAB account(s) and our wagering products and services and to communicate with you. We also collect your personal information to comply with the 'Customer Due Diligence' requirements in the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (the AML/CTF Act), including to:

- assess and manage potential money laundering, terrorism financing, proliferation financing risks or related compliance risks associated with the provision of our services;
- confirm whether your details are included on any Tabcorp risk management registers;
- make reports required by law under the AML/CTF Act; and
- meet our record keeping obligations under the AML/CTF Act.

What personal information we collect: We collect your full name, date of birth, residential address, contact details, photo or other forms of ID (where applicable, such as driver's licence) and unique identifiers (such as driver's licence number). We also collect your TAB account information (where applicable). We may collect further relevant information and documents for customer due diligence purposes. In addition, we may collect sensitive information such as information about your political associations to determine if you are a politically exposed person for the purposes of our customer due diligence obligations.

How we collect your information: We generally collect your personal information from you directly. For customer due diligence purposes, we may also collect your personal information from third parties and other sources, including third parties that help us manage our AML/CTF risks including our customer due diligence obligations (e.g. "World-Check" screening services and customer data validation service providers) and identity verification obligations (e.g. identity verification organisations such as identity verification service providers), public sources (e.g. media, search websites) and publicly available registries and databases.

Who we may share your information with: To provide you with our products and services and to manage our business, we may disclose your personal information within the Tabcorp group and to our third party service providers (including TAB retail venues and third parties that help us manage our AML/CTF risks including customer due diligence and identity verification obligations such identity verification service providers). We may also disclose your personal information to AUSTRAC or an entity in our AML/CTF reporting group (being Tabcorp Holdings Limited and our TAB licensed wagering entities) in accordance with our obligations under the AML/CTF Act or the AML/CTF Rules, to industry regulators, government authorities and law enforcement as required by law. For more information on the countries to which we may disclose your personal information, please see our Privacy Policy at www.tabcorp.com.au/privacy-policy.

What happens if we cannot collect your information: If you do not provide us with your personal information, we may not be able to conduct our customer due diligence processes or provide our wagering services to you.

Your privacy rights and our privacy policy: See "Our legal obligations and your rights" in the Identity Verification Collection Notice below.

How to contact us about your privacy: See "how to get more information" in the Identity Verification Collection Notice.

IMPORTANT NOTICES

Identity Verification Collection Notice

In accordance with our compliance obligations under the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing Act 2006 (Cth) (AML/CTF Act), Tabcorp Holdings Limited (ABN 66 063 780 709) and its subsidiaries (we, us, our) will collect, use and disclose your identification information to verify your identity to comply with the 'Customer Due Diligence' requirements in the AML/CTF Act (including to establish and verify your identity).

How we verify your identity: To verify your identity, we use an identity verification service that confirms whether the details you provide to us from your identity document (such as a passport or drivers licence) matches the record that the document issuer or official record holder holds. The identity verification service will tell us whether the information matches or does not match. We may use a third-party gateway service provider to access the identity verification service. We also use our TAB retail venues and agencies to facilitate the collection of your identity document details for the purpose of this identity verification service.

What happens if you don't consent: If you do not provide consent we will work with you to attempt to verify your identity via other means. If we cannot verify your identity, we will not be able to process your claim.

Our legal obligations and your rights: When we collect and handle your personal information, we do so in accordance with our legal obligations (including under the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and the Identity Verification Services Act 2023 (Cth)). As with other personal information we collect, you have rights in relation to the identification information that we collect. These rights include the right to request access to, and seek correction of, personal information that we hold about you.

How to make a complaint: If you have a concern about how we have handled your personal information or your privacy, including if you have any complaints about the identity verification process, please let us know so we can take steps to address your concern. If we don't address your concern when you first raise it, you can make a complaint, and we'll do our best to resolve it for you. To make a privacy complaint, please contact our Privacy Officer in writing (Email: privacy@tabcorp.com.au, Mail: Level 13, 180 Ann Street, Brisbane QLD 4000). More information about our complaints process is set out in our Privacy Policy available at www.tabcorp.com.au/privacy-policy.

How to get more information: For further information about our privacy practices, please refer to the Tabcorp Group Privacy Policy available at https://www.tabcorp.com.au/privacy-policy. For more information about the operation and management of the identity verification service visit the Government IDMatch website (https://www.idmatch.gov.au/).
